THE CASE OF GREECE

It is easy for persons who consider today, the Germans would be unable to restrain their Bulgarian and Turkish allies and that country would be overrun by Huns. The Angle-French are dehorning King Constantine and his pensioners, but no considerable number of Greek people are protesting. The Greeks in America understand, and if one cares to get the viewpoint of the masses, he can discuss the situation with intelligent Greeks in the United States, some of them know more European history than half of the college graduates.

Hickory will be glad to welcome the distinguished Republican visitors Monday night. Dr. Samuel Blair of Missouri, Mr. Thomas Settle of Asheville and National Committeeman John M. Morehead of Charlotte have more than a local reputation. They will present the case as the Republicans see it and will be heard by a large crowd.

We have been apprised that there is a reason why the streets of Hickory are used as a race course by automobiles; but there is no reason. The citizens of this town ought to insist that the automobiles, in using the streets, do not endanger the lives of children or adults and that protection from dust be given residents on sand clay streets.

That was a 338 gallon still that Revenue Officers P. P. Jones and H. W. Jones and C. A. Moser interrupted in Catawba county this week, just 101 more gallons than the Record was informed. Well-informed men say it was about the biggest ever, and there has been considerable surprise that it should have escaped attention for a week or more.

The Record did not learn until the ofternoon that Chairman Travis was to speak in Hickory Thursday night, but we were glad the chairman divided time with the governor. Mr. Craig has not been very strong in the last few months nad is not equal to a long speech. The way in which he and Mr. Travis discussed the issues left nothing to be desired.

Does Hickory want a good chautauqua? Would it care for the same attraction that will play Raleigh, Columbia and other larger towns next May? If there is enough interest, the attractions can be secured.

We notice that Mr. Hughes is unequivocal in his statements as to his attitude toward Mexico, but poor little Mexico, whose peons are not voting in the United States.
